

Day One: Make a text-to-self connection as you read tonight. Include evidence from the text to support this connection.

Day Two: What is a theme from your book? What does the text say that makes you think this is a theme?

Day Three: Explain how the conflict is developing in the part of the book that you are reading tonight. Use evidence from the text to support your thinking.

Day Four: What is the setting of the book you are reading? How does the setting impact the plot?

Day Five: How do the visual components of the text (cover, illustrations, etc.) add to the meaning of the book?